

You are invited to a luncheon presentation on

BULLYING PREVENTION

RESOURCES AND FUNDING

Learn how your school can use quality literature and teaching materials to address bullying concerns, and discover how your school can access funding for materials through the Peacemaker Foundation

Wednesday, April 7, 2010

Hilton Hotel

Marquette II, Second Floor

Downtown Minneapolis

The Hilton Hotel is connected to the Convention Center via the Sky Way

11:30 to 1:00 PM (Luncheon and Presentation)

Reservation Required - Limited Seating

RSVP to Jane Dalrymple by April 2, 2010

jane.dalrymple@zaner-bloser.com | 952.356.9741

About the Program and Presenters:

Character Development and Bullying Prevention Literature can help your students develop critical social skills by addressing themes that include conflict resolution, identity awareness, empathy, tolerance, and understanding. Patricia Bailey, Language Arts Specialist, will present these materials.

Dan McNeil, from Peace Maker Foundation in St. Paul, MN, will discuss ways your school can fund these materials through the Peace Maker Foundation program.

More Info: www.zaner-bloser.com/LACE/