

The Sense of Humor

HOW HUMOR, LAUGHTER AND IMPROVISATION ENHANCE EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

Laugh and learn with award-winning educator, improviser and Certified Laughter Leader, Jim Winter as he explores the fun-damental strategies for using humor to improve your professional effectiveness and your life!

Interactive and Inspirational

Jim reviews the research and provides the theories, forms and styles of humor that support individual and group achievement. But he doesn't stop there. In addition to humorous examples, anecdotes, cartoons and video clips, Jim guides the audience through improvisational activities and laughter exercises designed to boost energy, enhance spontaneity, increase collaboration and develop the ability to create a fun, healthy climate for achievement.

Participants will:

- Understand humor's source and its unique function in effective teaching and learning.
- Identify various types, forms and styles of humor.
- Experience improvisational exercises designed to enhance individual spontaneity and group collaboration.
- Recognize appropriate and inappropriate uses of humor.
- Explore ways to use humor to create a positive climate for learning and achievement.
